Technologies and Social Sciences play a unique and distinctive role in a society where the ethos of science and technology prevails. It is believed that engineering and science are, by their very nature, humanistic and socially derived enterprises.

Hence a complete science and technology education must include technologies and social science where the students unites application of scientific principles along with human, moral and social understanding to provides themselves with a holistic understanding of socio-economic reality and the role of technology for sustainable development. Besides, the technologies and social sciences have an important role to play in the development of critical and independent thinking, which is key to a healthy and vibrant democracy.

Malaysian-French Biometrics Seminar

Biometrics can be seen as an attractive solution to user authentication as the relationship between the authenticator and the user is very strong. It has become one of the well-known and reliable user authentication systems as substitute to password-based authentication ones. Biometric techniques have been developed for a machine-based verification of the identity of a person. The use of biometric techniques, such as face, fingerprint, iris, ear and others is a solution for obtaining a secure personal authentication method.
